

A graphic of a staircase with four steps, ascending from left to right. Each step is represented by a horizontal line segment and a vertical line segment. The horizontal segments are light blue, and the vertical segments are dark blue. On each horizontal segment, there is a white rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for writing a word. The boxes are positioned as follows: the first box is on the first horizontal segment, the second box is on the second horizontal segment, the third box is on the third horizontal segment, and the fourth box is on the fourth horizontal segment.
